

Elvilara (Elvie) was born in the land of steel band and calypso, Trinidad & Tobago. She is the mother of three wonderful children, 2 girls and 1 boy. She is also a grandmother.

Elvie is an extremely professional Baby Nurse with NICU (Neo-natal Intensive Care Unit) experience. She has worked extensively, not only with singles but also twins, triplets and preemies.

By nature Elvie is an optimist and a great teacher. She is a people person with genuine love and concern, not only for the babies but also the parents. She is very humble, compassionate, responsible, trustworthy, hard working, attentive, funny and easy to be around.

Her hobbies are reading and politics.
